IAB# 2102428

The evidence in this investigation supports the following charges:

That in violation of Manual Section 3-01/050.10, Performance to Standards, on or about October 15, 2003, the Subject, while supervising a subordinate security officer and operating the desk radio at L.A. City College, refused to acknowledge repeated radio transmissions from this subordinate.

That in violation of Manual Section 3-01/040.70, Making False Statements to a Supervisor, told a supervising sergeant during an inquiry that he had, in fact, acknowledged this subordinates transmissions.

That in violation of Manual Section 3-01/040.75, Making False Statements During an Internal Investigation, the Subject refused to admit that he had heard the transmissions made by this subordinate and had not acknowledged them.

Summary:

Subject Deputy Davis was controlling the desk radio at Los Angeles City College when he was asked to switch to the tactical frequency. He did so and was told by Security Officer [REDACTED] that she had locked up a portion of the campus and then asked for acknowledgment from Subject Davis. Davis did not acknowledge her transmission. While [REDACTED] was trying to get Davis to respond to her, she was approached by the victim of an earlier campus bike theft. [REDACTED] was told by the victim/citizen that he was going to confront some nearby boys who had a bike resembling one stolen from him earlier. Security Officer [REDACTED] continued to try to get acknowledgment from Davis on the tactical frequency and advised him she needed back-up regarding a victim/citizen about to retrieve his bike from possible suspects. [REDACTED] did not go back to the primary frequency to ask for back-up regarding her potential victim/citizen. Instead, she gave no indication of the problem she was facing in any of her radio traffic on the tactical or primary frequency. She simply repeated her request for Subject Davis to switch radio frequencies and talk to her on the tactical channel. Security Officer [REDACTED] later complained to College Bureau Operations staff that Subject Deputy Davis had intentionally ignored her radio traffic. An inquiry was conducted by Sergeant Parker.

When asked about the radio traffic, Subject Davis unequivocally told Sergeant Parker that he had, in fact, acknowledged [REDACTED] radio traffic. Sergeant Parker acquired a copy of the radio traffic (see attached CD) and realized that Subject Davis had been untruthful. Parker learned that another College Bureau Deputy, [REDACTED] had monitored the tactical frequency while at Southwest College and overheard Security Officer [REDACTED] efforts to get an acknowledgment from Subject Davis. Deputy [REDACTED] spoke to Security Officer [REDACTED] on the radio and was told simply that she wanted someone at the LA City College to acknowledge her radio traffic but gave [REDACTED] no indication of her need for back-up. Deputy [REDACTED] called the desk at LA City College and told Cadet [REDACTED] who was staffing the phone and seated next to Subject Davis, of the need for someone at the desk to go the tactical frequency. [REDACTED] told Subject Davis about this but Subject Davis simply did not acknowledge Security Officer [REDACTED] on either the primary frequency or the tactical frequency. [REDACTED] said that at some point during [REDACTED] efforts to get acknowledgment, Davis told him ([REDACTED] that [REDACTED] was trying to advise him about having locked up another part of the campus. [REDACTED] was certain that he (Davis) did not acknowledge [REDACTED] because of this.

A unit level investigation was initiated and during the investigation, Subject Davis refused to admit that he had not acknowledged [REDACTED] on the radio. Early in the interview, Davis also denied being told by Cadet [REDACTED] seated next to him, that Security Officer [REDACTED] was asking him to acknowledge her radio traffic on the tactical frequency. Later in the interview, he made statements to the effect that he had heard [REDACTED] tell him to switch to the tactical frequency, did so, and heard nothing.

It appears from all the information gathered, that Subject Deputy Davis was intentionally not acknowledging Security Officer [REDACTED] on the radio. Furthermore, during both the inquiry by Sergeant Parker and the Unit Level IAB investigation, Davis was deceptive. It should be noted that when the citizen/victim got closer to the kids he thought had his bike, he saw that the bike was not his and waved [REDACTED] off, walking away.

DISCIPLINE ASSESSMENT

Assessment of Comparative Discipline

Gary Davis [REDACTED]
Deputy Sheriff
Community College Bureau

IAB# 2102428

The Department's Guidelines for Discipline lists the following analogous misconduct with associated disciplinary penalties:

Performance to Standards	Written reprimand to termination
Untruthful statements to a supervisor	10-15 days suspension
Untruthful statements during an internal investigation	15-25 days suspension

Assessment of Mitigating and Aggravating Factors

Subject Davis is and was aware of the requirements that he follow established radio procedures. He is and was also aware of the requirements set forth in the Manual of Policy and Procedures, as well as our Core Values, requiring that he be truthful and forthcoming in all matters. The only element in mitigation for Subject Deputy Davis is that Security Officer [REDACTED] failed to follow proper radio operating procedures and did not go to the primary frequency and ask for back-up to deal with a potential problem she was untrained to handle.

Severity of Infractions:

These violations were all extremely serious. The radio procedures violation by Subject Davis was one that could have resulted in injury to Security Officer [REDACTED]. Security Officer [REDACTED] failed to use proper procedures during this incident. However, Subject Deputy Davis is her supervisor and should have responded.

Degree of Culpability:

Subject Davis is solely responsible for these violations.

Gary Davis
Deputy Sheriff
Community College Bureau

IAB# 2102428

Intent, Truthfulness, and Acceptance of Responsibility:

Subject Davis was not truthful and refuses to accept responsibility for his failure to act.

Past Performance and Discipline History:

This is the first and only violation of this sort in Subject Davis' (3) years with the Department. He has performed competently or better for every evaluation period.

Disposition

Based upon the foregoing assessment of the mitigating and aggravating factors, the following is the recommended penalty, subject to revision upon receiving the Subject's response or grievance:
